Question 2

6 points

Part (a): 1 point

One point is earned for a definition: Entitlement programs are government-sponsored programs providing mandated/guaranteed/required benefits to those who meet eligibility requirements/qualifications.

Part (b): 1 point

One point is earned for identifying the primary source of revenue for Social Security. Acceptable responses may include:

- Payroll taxes.
- Wages from existing wage earners.
- Tax based on earned income.
- Targeted/earmarked taxes.

Note: The response must indicate that the tax is related to work/jobs in order to receive the point.

Part (c): 1 point

One point is earned for identifying a threat to the future of Social Security based on the trends indicated in the chart. Acceptable responses may include:

- Run out of money.
- Outputs exceed inputs.
- Declining reserve.

Part (d): 2 points

One point is earned for describing one demographic trend that threatens the future of Social Security. One point is earned for explaining how the demographic trend is responsible for the threat identified in (c).

Acceptable descriptions may include:

- More older people/“baby boom” generation.
- People living longer/greater life expectancy.
- Declining birth rates.

Acceptable explanations may include:

- The number of workers who fund Social Security is decreasing, but the number of people eligible for Social Security is increasing.
- The number of working people cannot support the large population who will soon reach the age of eligibility to receive Social Security.
- The ratio of workers to retirees is becoming more unequal. With fewer workers, less money is being paid in, and with more retirees, more money is being paid out.

Notes:

- Response cannot get the explanation point without a valid description of the demographic trend.
- The explanation must address the number of younger people in comparison to the number of older people in order to earn the point.

Part (e): 1 point

One point is earned for explaining how, if people were to work longer, less money would be paid out/more money would be paid in/the reserve would not decline as rapidly or as much.

A score of zero (0) is earned for an attempted answer that earns no points.

A score of dash (—) is earned for a blank or off-task answer.
